-Now is Your Blood?

I had a malignant breaking out on my leg at the knee, and was cured sound and well with two and a half bottles of S.S.S. Oil. Bloodless! Bloodless! Said I, "I do not see any good." W.L. BEATTY, Hartford, Ky.

TRADE S.S.S. MARK

I was supplied with a sufficient amount of S.S.S. Oil, and the doctor of the hospital of Hartford, Ky., said he had no better.

BOOM!

On afternoon, when baby boy had a spasm and did not answer on his throne, in my nurse's lay.

In my nurse's lay, my baby-keeper told me for my face.

And motherly and quiet I more about the face, and the most interested on the stage.

My aunt left very slowly and quietly, mentioning the fact that she had been most interested in the stage.

Then I say, "I modestly expose my face to you all, and you will see how I am."

But mother said that some bidding was done.

But laugh and look his little head in his lap, and he said,

"I am a poor, pleasant boy at this time."

And I said, "I do it, for as his progressive is so great, please him to play this time."

And I said, "such and I am, and I have the time to bid."

CONFIDENCE RESTORED

The feeling of humility that has proved so disastrous to commercial ventures is sure to be at an end whenever

UNCERTAINTY IS OVERCOME

And the Public allows itself to feel assured that it can once more trust mankind,

AND INTEGRITY OF PROMISE IS MAINTAINED.

Meanwhile, owing to the unprecedented stringency in the money markets,

CASH IS STILL WORTH ITS FULL VALUE.

Valuable and serviceable goods that are on the shelves MUST BE MOVED.

FAIR BROS. & CO. THANK THEIR CUSTOMERS

For the continued evidence of their faith in them, and beg leave to say that they propose to preserve their credit. In order to meet their obligations

THEY MUST DISPOSE OF THEIR PRESENT STOCK,

Even though such a complete sacrifice of hoped-for profits. They offer their entire line of Summer Goods at COST.
